

GRACE CHURCH

PHILADELPHIA

AND

Roll of Communicants

1893

PRESS OF GLOBE PRINTING HOUSE, PHILADA.

NOTE.

The following pages contain the story of another year of quiet work. In that year progress and prosperity, as in the days of old, were vouchsafed Grace Church, and the flow of parish life was gentle and joyous, unhindered by difficulties and undisturbed by doubts. There are no startling events and no wonderful results to record; but in the earnest desire and anxious diligence to do the duty which has presented itself, the blessing of God, so unmistakably manifested, has given satisfaction and encouragement. The results of labor done toward winning the stranger and the alien to the Church of Jesus Christ, and edifying the children of promise baptized into His Name, can never be numbered or measured by man. This book, therefore, is intended not so much to define or to enumerate successes as to create thankfulness to Almighty God for "the great things He hath done" in imparting the will and the strength to work, the grace of unity and concord, and the consciousness that He has been present all the way along.

It is essential for the growth and permanency of the Parish, that the Endowment should continue to increase by interest accumulations and by the generous gifts of the Congregation at Easter.

LAY WORK IN THE PARISH.

The duty and privilege of the laity to be fellow-workers with the clergy in the upbuilding of Christ's kingdom, ought ever to be remembered. No rector can possibly accomplish all the work in his parish that needs to be done. If he is to be "diligent in prayers and in reading of the Holy Scriptures, and in such studies as help to the knowledge of the same," to prepare sermons and addresses, to visit the sick and the needy, to comfort the sorrowing and advise the perplexed, to guide the labors of the congregation and to help in general benevolent and ecclesiastical enterprises, his hands and mind will be more than filled. Unless he has with him helpers, both clerical and lay, each working in his or her vocation and ministry, much must remain undone. Parochial success is due largely to the unity of pastor and people, not only in doctrine, sympathy and love, but also in self-denial, suffering and toil.

It has been the glory of Grace Church and the joy of its successive rectors to have in the parish many men and women ready and glad both to increase the strength and usefulness of the Church, and to further the efforts of the clergy in the propagation of the Gospel.

For upwards of thirty years, except during the summer months, there has been maintained a mission service, or cottage meeting. This has been held season by season in various parts of the parish, always on Thursday evening, and with an average attendance of thirty. It is conducted entirely by lay communicants of experience and influence, two or three being present at each service. They seek reverently and simply—duly regarding the dignity of their mission and the need of their hearers—to make known the riches of the grace of God. Both speakers and listeners have been benefited; the former by the reflex influence upon their own souls, developing their powers for usefulness, and giving them a deeper and wider insight into Divine mysteries and human experience; and the latter by the unfolding of the Word and the uplifting of the Christ. Many who had grown lukewarm and had fallen into habits of carelessness have been brought back to their religious duties, and others by the awakening of conscience have been led to reformation of life and to faith in the Lord Jesus.

In the death of Mr. Andrew H. Miller the parish lost one who took not only a kindly interest in its general welfare, but also a leading part in these cottage meetings. With Mr. T. A. Robinson, Mr. William Waterall and the late beloved and remembered Mr. I. S. Williams, he was most faithful in his attendance thereon and in the exercise of gifts with which God had endowed him. It may be truly said of him that his trust in God and his desire to work for God never wavered. Loving testimony to his beautiful and earnest Christian character is readily and constantly given by many who at these meetings were brought into contact with him. He was for years a vestryman of Grace Church, and a worshipper there, and at no time did his sympathy with and anxiety for the parish diminish. In his will he remembered his early and almost life-long love, and made a generous bequest to the endowment fund.

Grace Church has recognized always the worth and advantage of woman's work. For many years a missionary has been employed, and now another like-minded and devoted woman has been engaged. By them is visited every house in the poorer parts of the parish and every person who has a claim upon Grace Church. Wherever needed they distribute books, tracts, clothing, food and alms. Their work has received an abundant blessing, and by their ministrations homes have been brightened, the sick comforted, the deserving poor assisted, and the stranger welcomed.

Of the elder of these two workers, Mrs. Charles D. Krail, the congregation will ever remember her energy, devotion and faithfulness, displayed through long years of service. Thousands of people have been helped both spiritually and temporally by her. In the cold of winter or in the heat of summer, she has kept steadily on with her arduous duties, thinking no toil too great and no suffering too severe, could she but help some one to the better and higher life. When at last illness came upon her, still her devotion found its expression in prayer and praises offered from her sick-bed. The work went not out of her mind. And nothing was more delightful than to know of the sympathy manifested for her by the many to whom she had been a friend. God has restored her to health, and she is again in the field busy about her Master's service, taking interest first of all in the Bible Class, of which mention is made elsewhere.

Miss Davison, one of the first Deaconesses set apart in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, began her work last January; and in her is a witness and proof of the value of the restoration to the Church of the Deaconess. Trained and equipped for her work, and endowed with gifts and graces most necessary for her calling, she has won the sympathy and confidence alike of clergy and of congregation. Her touch is felt in almost every department of the parish. During the past eight months she has made 1,033 visits, details of each visit being reported to the Rector. She has distributed both money and clothing, and has helped to send needy or sick women and children to the seaside, to homes, or to hospitals. She has taught in the Sunday School and elsewhere. Nearly all the societies of the parish have been assisted by her. And from her admirable reports the Rector is able to learn the exact condition and need of every family and person in the parish.

Most efficient help in district visiting has been afforded by some of the Sunday School teachers, and by members of the Dorcas and Missionary Societies. Much might be done by the parishioners visiting each other, and fostering kindly feelings one for another, and a warm interest in the work of the parish.

Other lay-work is mentioned elsewhere in these pages. As the opportunities grow the need of more laborers increases. There are multitudes in that part of the city over which the parish of Grace Church extends waiting for the influence of Christianity. The congregation that has faith and life may reach them and win them. Much has been done; more remains to be done. Nor is it difficult for the individual layman to invite the non-church-goer to Divine service, to make him welcome in the House of God and to set the good example himself of a regular and devout attendance thereon.

THE BIBLE READINGS.

For seven years the interest manifested in the Bible Readings has both continued and increased. They have obtained much commendation from visiting clergy and many favorable notices from the religious and the secular press; the attendance, too, largely consisting of people not belonging to Grace Church, has been as great as in previous years. Nor is the help inconsiderable which this work has given towards securing a fuller recognition of the worth and need of expository teaching.

The lectures have consisted of expositions of parts of the Epistle to the Hebrews; the history and contents of the minor books of the Old Testament (now being printed in the Sunday School Magazine); scenes from the life and passages from the writings of St. Paul; the witness to Christ of the Sacred Scriptures, of history, of myths, of Pagan religions and literatures, and of human consciousness; an exposition of the Book of Psalms; and leading events in the life of our Blessed Lord.

It is worth remembering that the Church whose greatest glory is that she gave to Christendom the Authorized Version of the Sacred Scriptures has been most earnest in the exposition of the Word. The scholarship, catholicity and devotion of her commentators are unrivalled; her efforts for the distribution of the Bible are unequalled. To add to the splendor of this tradition has been the purpose of the readings in Grace Church. The upbuilding of the Christian life is not second in importance to the conversion of the unbeliever.

The readings are held in the Church every Wednesday afternoon from half-past four o'clock to half-past five. It is hoped that this distinguishing feature of the work of Grace Church will retain its place in the affections of the congregation, and that they who know the value of systematic Scripture study will strive for its extension and future success.

COMMUNICANTS' MEETING.

The service on the Friday evening next before the first Sunday in the month is intended to help the communicants to prepare for the approaching celebration. After prayers an address is made especially to those who desire further instruction in the mystery of godliness, to know more of Christ, His kingdom and His word, and to be knit more closely to Him in this Blessed Sacrament. Even as the ploughed field can better receive the seed, so the heart and mind thus made ready for Holy Communion can more truly and profitably appreciate the blessings flowing therefrom. Such help as this service affords is not designed to interfere with the duty of private preparation, but they who purpose going to communion should regard its attendance as an obligation. Moreover, as the communicants are the strength and glory of the parish, it is needful that their spiritual life should have every encouragement. So soon as they fail in their grasp and love of divine things the parish languishes and decays. About two hundred persons receive at each administration in Grace Church, but of these many do not frequent the communicants' meeting.

The work of both the schools has been diligently carried on during the past year. Necessarily much of the good done is as seed sown in the ground ; the days of ripening and of harvesting are in God's keeping. Nor are the results to be altogether judged by the number of scholars either presenting themselves for confirmation or attending Divine service, though the teachers recognize the obligation of constantly urging both duties upon their pupils. Nowhere are faith and patience more needed than in this part of the Master's vineyard, but the arduous and trying character of the labor is compensated by many present encouragements, and by the assurance that naught for God is done in vain.

The school looks anxiously and hopefully for an increase of willing workers. More teachers are needed. It is also desirable that the sympathy between the parish and the school should be encouraged and deepened. More frequent visits of the members of the congregation to the school-room would both help the work and cheer the toilers therein.

All the officers and teachers are communicants, and are on the roll of Grace Church. The Bible lessons used are those of the Joint Diocesan Committee; the collects and catechism are also systematically taught. The Day of Intercession was observed by an early celebration of the Communion, by special prayers in the morning service, and by a sermon by the rector.

For the benefit of teachers and others interested in Bible Study, instruction in the lesson for the following Sunday is given at the Church of the Epiphany, Fifteenth and Chestnut Streets, every Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, under the auspices of the Sunday School Association of the Diocese. The American Church Sunday School Magazine also contains outlines of the lessons, and besides has articles of such general interest which make it a most desirable magazine for the household.

Besides teaching and helping otherwise in the Sunday School, the Deaconess has had a class of young girls on Friday evenings for instruction in the Prayer Book. The attendance last spring was most encouraging, and the class opens this autumn with ten or twelve members.

The Afternoon School is self-supporting, and last Easter it contributed $100.00 toward the building of a chapel at White Sulphur Springs, Montana, which when finished will bear the name of Grace Church Mission, it having been started by a young man from our parish. Mr. Charles H. Reinsberg, the minister-in-charge, had hoped to begin building this year, but owing to the financial distress at present in Montana, writes that it will be deferred for some time.

Bishop Brewer visited the Afternoon School and gave a description of Montana and an account of his work among the people there, especially of White Sulphur Springs, and thanked the children for their gifts; previous Easter Offerings having been devoted to the same object.

At Christmas time the children brought to the school about forty packages of groceries to be distributed among the poor of the parish, and the happy faces of the little ones as they brought forward their offerings, reminded one of the joy of the text: "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

The Book of Common Prayer is used in the opening exercises of the Afternoon School, thus making the children familiar with it, with the further hope of such a knowledge becoming an incentive to them to attend the services in the Church.

R. C. HOOD BIBLE CLASS.

Teacher.—Mrs. Krail.

Secretary.—William Fisher.

Treasurer.—H. H. Hollowbush.

Organist.—Charles Barnes.

Librarians.—Lewis D. Wall, Richard Bunting.

This organization has held its own through the thirty-second year of its existence. Its object is to further both the spiritual and the social welfare of its members, and their knowledge of the sacred Scriptures. By its efforts not a few young men have been brought to a realization of the Divine Love, and much seed has been sown that, kept by the providence of God, shall in the harvest-day be gathered to His glory.

The members meet for instruction in the upper lecture-room on Sunday mornings at 9.30 o'clock. They now number 110. At Christmas and Easter the Class unites with the Sunday School in the special services held in the Church, and in the Class are many of the most constant communicants and most willing workers belonging to the parish.

In the death of Frank Strauss the Class lost a faithful member. He had grown up in it and was for long its organist. A short illness, and he was called to enter into his rest.

PASTORAL AID SOCIETY.

President.—The Rector.

Treasurer.—Mr. L. J. Riley.

For thirty-one years this Society has taken part in the work of the parish. It receives and disperses certain funds for the poor; the salary of the Parish Missionary and expenses of the cottage meeting are paid by its Treasurer, and it assists the Dorcas Society by providing means wherewith to pay for the making of garments.

The funds for this purpose are supplied by the interest on legacies ($100), an annual collection in the Church, and contributions from the Sunday School, Woman's Missionary Society and members of the congregation. It is desirable that the income of the Society should be increased. All who subscribe annually to the funds, and signify their wish, are thereby made members of the Society.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

President.—The Rector.

Vice-President.—Mrs. B. M. Gaskill.

Foreign Secretary.—Mrs. James S. Stone.

Domestic Secretary.—Mrs. McFerren.

Treasurer.—Miss K. C. Broadbent.

Visiting Committee.—Mrs. S. G. Flagg, Mrs. S. Snyder, Mrs. C. S. Rulon, Miss E. Buck, Mrs. Wm. Waterall, Miss A. S. Wheaton, Mrs. S. M. Elliot, Miss Steever, Miss Kennedy, Mrs. Alexander.

Delegates to Domestic Committee.—Mrs. S. G. Flagg, Miss J. K. Hood.

Delegate to Foreign Committee and Indians' Hope Association.—

Delegates to Freedmen's Committee.—Mrs. Wm. Waterall, Miss Steever.

This Society was founded in 1881, and has for its purpose "to awaken throughout the parish a deeper, permanent and more general interest in the work of missions, both foreign and domestic, and to show to our missionaries in the field that they have those at home who work, pray and sympathize with them, and who testify their sympathy by practical aid." Its membership consists of all who contribute annually to its support; and its affairs are managed by an Executive Committee, composed of the Officers and Visitors. A yearly meeting of the Society is held in November, at which the Officers and Visitors are elected; the Executive Committee meets for business on the first Thursday of each month.

All the money received by the Society through subscription (unless otherwise designated by the subscriber) is divided into four equal parts and assigned as follows: One to Foreign Missions, one to Domestic Missions, one to Diocesan Missions, and the remaining fourth constitutes a Contingent Fund. The three-fourths devoted exclusively to Mission purposes are augmented by an evening offertory assigned to each by the Church.

It has been the custom of the Society to send, during the Advent and Lenten seasons, boxes of clothing to needy missionaries or schools. In the period covered by this report a box was sent to Mr. J. F. Michell, of Petersburg, Va. The two Lenten boxes in 1892 were valued at $90.00 each. The first was sent at the suggestion of Miss Emily Potter to a sewing class out in Utah, which she has been guiding and assisting for some time past, and to their teacher, Mr. Ellis, of St. Jude's Mission, Layton, Lavis Co., Utah. A very grateful letter was received from these "converts from Mormonism." The second was sent to the Rev. L. D. Brainerd, Glenwood, Mills Co., Iowa. In May, the Junior Auxiliary, under Miss Hood's care, sent a box to the Rev. T. W. Vaughan, valued at $29.20. Before Christmas a box was sent to the Rev. J. B. Massiah, Cairo, Ill., valued at $105.00.

An effort has been made to further the interest of the congregation in the Spirit of Missions. Everyone who loves the Church of God and desires its extension throughout the world, should read and help to make known that praiseworthy periodical. Its news is always fresh and helpful and it ought to be in every home and familiar to every communicant.

The Junior Auxiliary has continued its work and now numbers thirty-five members, taken from the older scholars of the Sunday School, and directed by Miss J. K. Hood, Miss E. M. Coates, Miss — Milligan, Miss Waterall, and the Deaconess, Miss Davison. The Society holds its meetings once a week and its progress is most satisfactory. The members manifest a willing spirit, and little by little, not only are helping others, but also are gaining a knowledge of missionary work. Besides four dollars given by them to Foreign Missions, they made fifty garments for poor children in Grace Church parish, and made and sent fifty other articles to the mission at Allahabad, India, under the care of Miss Lathrop.

The Treasurer's report will show the disposition made of the funds at the disposal of the Society.

It is desired that our parish, together with others, may aid in providing an "Episcopal Fund," from which the Bishop may help needy clergymen in our own diocese.

The work done indicates the spirit which has prevailed in the Society. The duty of furthering the work of the Church of the Lord Jesus and sympathy for those who for His sake and at His command are toiling in the mission field, have been deeply realized.

So long as the Saviour's command is unrecalled, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature," so long will missionary work go on. The time of rest is not yet: "This Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations: and then shall the end come." It would help much if every one connected with Grace Church would daily pray for God's blessing upon this Society, that it may be guided and strengthened to do that which shall be most for His glory and nearest to His will.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

Directress.—Mrs. S. G. Flagg.

Secretary.—Miss E. C. Buck.

Treasurer.—Miss A. S. Wheaton.

Cutting-out Committee.—Miss E. C. Buck, Miss S. L. Steever, Mrs. Snyder, Miss A. S. Wheaton, Mrs. J. Manuel, Mrs. F. Fairthorne, Mrs. Alexander.

Meetings are held on Thursday mornings at 10 o'clock, from October to April. Each year the demand is greater for sewing, not only from the women of the parish, but from beyond the established limits. Those receiving this employment find it a substantial aid, and the clothing distributed is gratefully received.

The officers express their devout appreciation of the Divine blessing vouchsafed their work, and they have a good hope that the kind Providence which has provided them in the past with all things needful, will continue to do so in the future.

THE WOMEN'S GUILD.

President.—Mrs. J. S. Stone.

Vice-President.—Mrs. B. M. Gaskill.

Treasurer.—Miss M. B. Griffiths.

Secretary.—Mrs. J. D. McFerren.

This Society, organized in October, 1884, and formerly known as the Young Ladies' Industrial Society, has for its object the obtaining of funds for Church purposes by filling orders for household and art needlework, and providing such means as may appear expedient for the sale of fancy and useful articles. Meetings are held in the school-room of the Church on the first Wednesday afternoon in each month at 3 o'clock, from November to May. At present the Society is endeavoring to make up an endowment fund of $1000 for the Chancel. This endowment, in common with all the endowments of the Church, will be held by the Vestry, and the income derived therefrom will be appropriated to providing and repairing such things as are needed in the Chancel for Divine service, and is therefore intended to relieve the parish of the annual charge of the same.

The Society took an active interest in the entertaining of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood at Grace Church, on November 30, 1892.

An illustrated lecture was given in Association Hall by the Rector for the benefit of the Guild. With the help of other ladies of the congregation, the members of the Guild were enabled to assist in the bazaar, given for the benefit of the Seamen's Mission, and the amount reached was $256.78.

The Musical Tea, held at the Stratford on April 13th, was most generously patronized by the members of the congregation, for which the ladies extend their thanks.

The Society at present has about thirty members, and apart from its direct purpose, it has been helpful towards creating a kindly and a loyal spirit in the parish.

CHANCEL COMMITTEE.

For the due ordering of the Chancel and for the preparations necessary for the celebration of Holy Communion and the administration of Baptism, several devout women have given their services.

In the arrangements needed for Holy Communion the Deaconess is assisted one month by Miss Gillespie and the next month by Mrs. McFerren. Mrs. Elliot and Miss J. S. Kennedy have charge of the Bible and prayer-books, and also of the hangings used in the Chancel, changing the colors according to the seasons.

The hangings, which are of fine workmanship and material, were given as follows: the green by Mrs. Elliot, the white by Mrs. Manuel, the purple by Mr. John Lucas and the red by Mrs. Nathan Myers.

The Bible, one of the largest and richest productions of the Clarendon Press, was presented by Mrs. Stanley G. Flagg, Jr., in loving memory of a deceased brother.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.

Teachers.—Miss Waterall, Miss C. Milligan, and Miss J. K. Hood.

The purpose of this Society is to teach such children as it can induce to attend the classes healthful ways of living and the secret of making home attractive. In carrying out this object, instruction is given in singing, calisthenics and personal deportment. The sessions are held on Saturdays, and the number of children enrolled is forty. The average attendance is thirty, and the ages of the pupils run from six to thirteen years. It is hoped that this good work will meet with even greater success than that which has already attended it.

MOTHERS' MEETING.

The Mothers' Meeting will be resumed, under the direction of the Deaconess, on the first Wednesday afternoon in November. Between thirty-five and forty women have promised to attend. Goods are purchased at wholesale prices, and sold to the members at cost, payments being made by them as each is able. One day in the month will be devoted to missionary objects. The meetings will be opened with a short service, and, as in former years, during the time sewing is going on an interesting book will be read aloud to the members.

Contributions of money or of materials may be sent to Miss Davison, either at the Church or at the Deaconess' House, 708 Spruce Street. Members of the congregation are also invited to visit the meeting, and helpers will always be welcomed. Several ladies will take part with Miss Davison in the work.

SEWING SCHOOL.

This useful department of parish work, also under the management of the Deaconess, will be opened on the second Saturday in October, with thirty pupils. The garments which the children make will be given to them; one day in each month being reserved for some benevolent purpose. The little ones will also be taught texts of Scripture, and otherwise helped in their spiritual and social life.

Workers and gifts of material will be always needed and welcomed for this work; and blessed, indeed, are they who help towards an effort intended to make happier the hearts and more useful the lives of these little ones.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

President.—The Rector.

Vice-President.—Rev. H. Q. Miller.

Secretary.—Mr. George C. Gillespie, 1318 Arch Street.

Treasurer.—Mr. A. W. Robinson.

The object of the Brotherhood is to seek, by prayer and organized work, the spiritual welfare of young men, and the spread of Christ's kingdom in the world. The rules of the society are few and simple. Each member agrees to pray daily for God's blessing on the labors of the Brotherhood, and to make an earnest effort each week to bring at least one young man to the services of the Church, or to the Guild or Sunday School. They also endeavor to attend divine worship as frequently as possible, to make all strangers welcome in the House of God, and to promote, as far as can be, that reverential devotion, pure worship and love for holy things which become the service of Almighty God, and fall to the duty of His people.

The Chapter in this parish holds its meeting on the fourth Monday evening in the month. There are at present seventeen members.

Two pews are set apart in Grace Church especially for the use of members and friends of the Brotherhood. They are always occupied.

All young men connected with Grace Church, and having sympathy with the objects of the Brotherhood, are invited to confer with the Vice-President or the Secretary, or with any member, and thus obtain further information.

GRACE CHURCH BENEFICIAL SOCIETY.

President.—Rev. J. S. Stone, D.D.

First Vice-President.—H. H. Hulands.

Second Vice-President.—T. H. Bailey.

Physicians.—Herbert L. Northrup, M.D., Charles Shaffner, M.D.,
251 S. Thirteenth Street.

Recording Secretary.—H. H. Hollowbush, 227 S. Fourth Street.

Financial Secretary.—M. C. Pearce, 6071 Vine Street.

Treasurer.—A. W. Robinson.

Relief Committee.—F. J. Strauss, Chairman, 1433 Ogden Street;
C. G. Barnes, T. H. Bailey.

Investigating Committee.—C. G. Barnes, Chairman; T. H. Bailey, W. J. O'Donnell.

Trustees.—A. W. Robinson, L. D. Wall, T. H. Bailey.

This Society was organized in 1882, having for its object "the mutual benefit and relief of its members in sickness and adversity." A payment of sixty cents a month secures, in case of sickness, five dollars per week and medical attendance; and in the case of the death of a member, or of a member's wife, a sum for immediate expenses is provided by an assessment of twenty-five cents upon each member.

Although the Society has been successful financially, the membership has not increased as it should. It is hoped that members and friends of the organization will endeavor to make known the benefits of the Society so that the roll may be enlarged. The fees for admission are:

GRACE CHURCH CHAPEL.

Some seven or eight years since a mission was begun at the corner of Fortieth Street and Girard Avenue by the Rev. Dudley Chase, and by him, till the Easter of 1890, was carried on with praiseworthy success. Services were held in a building belonging to the late Mrs. R. T. Willing. That estimable lady proved to be a good friend to the Mission, and it was her last wish that the property in which its services had been conducted should be used for the continuance of the work. Accordingly, after her death, in 1889, and the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Chase, the heirs to her estate conveyed the house and ground to the Rector and Vestry of Grace Church, and upon Grace Church taking charge the former name of the organization, The Chapel of the Reconciliation, was dropped, and the above title adopted. So far Grace Church has no reason to regret taking hold of this enterprise.

The progress of the work has been such that it became necessary to proceed to the building of a chapel. Accordingly, the house at Fortieth Street and Girard Avenue has been sold, and a parcel of ground purchased at the intersection of Girard and Leidy Avenues, one square west of the former property, and having 200 feet front on each avenue. Here the corner-stone of the new chapel was laid by the Bishop, May 5, 1893, and it is hoped that about the beginning of November the congregation will hold there its services. The cost of the land and building will be nearly $20,000, of which amount, owing to hard times, the Vestry has had to borrow $4,000. It is desirable that this debt should be removed as speedily as possible, so that no incumbrance shall hinder the development and progress of this effort for the extension of God's kingdom and the upbuilding of His Church. The mortgage is at five per cent. per annum, and may be paid off in sums of $500, as may be convenient for us.

Great praise is due to the unceasing efforts for the welfare of the Chapel of Mr. F. C. Adler and Mr. L. A. Thompson. Also to the Minister-in-charge for his fidelity and wisdom in furthering both its spiritual and temporal interests. To Miss Erwin, both the Vestry of Grace Church and the people of the Chapel give their most grateful thanks for her many generous and kind gifts to the work. One of the pleasing features in connection with the building of the Chapel is the very commendable desire on the part of several deeply interested friends, to lovingly remember their dear and near ones who have passed away to the realms and peace of Paradise.

Acknowledgment is gratefully made of the following Memorial gifts: a large and handsome Bible; two sets of Prayer Books and Hymnals; two Alms-Chests; two Memorial Windows, the one representing the administration of Holy Baptism, and the other, the Rite of Confirmation; and a rich and exceedingly beautiful Communion Service, consisting of five vessels.

It is hoped that, in time to come, further memorials may be placed in this beautiful little House of Prayer by the devout and liberal-minded.

There can be no doubt that the outcome of this Mission will be a large and strong parish. The neighborhood is growing, and the people are awake and have a mind to work. They have done much for themselves, and with the guidance and help of Grace Church they will do even better and larger work in the years to come.

THE WILLING GUILD.

President.—Mrs. Fred. L. Pitts.

Vice-President.—Mrs. Chas. A. Bridger.

Treasurer.—Miss Mattie A. Robertson.

Secretary.—Mrs. Frank Detwiler.

The name of this Guild has a double signification. It is called after the late and much lamented Mrs. R. T. Willing, whose devout Christian life and deeds of loving generosity are remembered with gratitude and love. The name is also indicative of the willingness on the part of the members to put forth every effort to awaken throughout this neighborhood an interest in the Chapel. They pray, and work, and sympathize, and help, and God is blessing their efforts.

The stated meetings of the Guild are held on the first Monday evening in every month from October to July.

Besides continuing their work of visiting the sick and the poor and of calling upon strangers, the members of this Guild have become responsible for part of the "Chapel Furnishing Fund." To discharge this obligation, in addition to collecting gifts, they propose holding a bazaar. By this means, due notice of which will be given, they hope both to accomplish their first intention and also to add to the interest which the whole parish and the people of the neighborhood take in the Chapel.

THE CHAPEL AID SOCIETY.

Chairman.—Mr. Francis C. Adler.

Secretary.—Mr. Parker Given.

Treasurer.—Miss Annie Medary.

This Society was formed last January, and has for its purpose the more efficient aid in the spiritual and temporal work of the Chapel; among other ways by praying daily for God's blessing upon the people and their labors, by making an earnest and an individual effort each week to bring at least one person to the services or to the Sunday School, and to help in any effort that shall be for the good of the Mission.

The Society has twenty-four members, all taken from the Sunday School. It meets fortnightly, on Friday evenings, from October to June inclusive.

During the past months its energy, devotion and faithfulness have increased the kindly feeling among the younger people of the congregation, and while helping on the interests of the Chapel has also added to the mutual improvement of its members.

ROLL OF COMMUNICANTS.

The following are the names of persons in good standing on the Roll of Communicants kept in Grace Church, Philadelphia, and reported as such to the Bishop in May, 1893. The greatest care has been taken to make the list perfect, and it is hoped that no name has been omitted that should be given. Former enumerations were in excess of the present one by upwards of 150 names, but diligent inquiry does not make plain that these names ought to be continued on the roll of this parish. Their exclusion herefrom does not imply excommunication, censure, or the loss of any spiritual privilege. They are dropped because some are known to be on the rolls of other parishes; and others belong to people who have long since removed from the city, or have gone out of the Church altogether, or have not received Holy Communion at Grace Church within the past three years. Every name that was sent in appears on the roll; and for two months, every Sunday, public notice was given and cards were distributed urging communicants to assist in making complete this register.

According to the laws of the Church a person can have his or her name placed upon the roll only after confirmation. Anyone confirmed in another parish, removing into this parish, must bring a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing.

It is requested that communicants notify the Rector in writing of any change in address; and especially do the clergy desire that all persons under their care shall observe the rule laid down in St. James 5: 14, and in the first rubric of the Order of the Visitation.

The number attached to each name is given, as nearly as can be ascertained, according to seniority in Grace Church. The congregation, as well as the Bishop, will be notified year by year of changes in the roll, and every five years the register will undergo complete revision.
